

WICK TO WEMBLEY? ... on the trail of the FA Cup

In August 2007 Andy Ollerenshaw went to an Extra Preliminary Round FA Cup tie at the bottom of his road between Chertsey Town and Wick, which heralded the start of a remarkable journey.

Wick to Wembley? is the story of that journey; 16 games and 2,354 miles from his local club to a Wembley Cup Final. It is the story of highs and lows, excitement and disappointment and of raw Cup football emotion that reduced grown men to tears.
